

Name: _____

Core : _____ Due Date: 10/11

Standard: W6.3 Write Narratives to develop read or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences.

Standards-based Criteria		Minimal	Developing	Reasonable	Excellent
Organization	W 6.3 Engage and orient the reader (with a strong lead, AKA hook.)	0	1	2	3
	W6.3a Introduce setting, characters and conflict.	0	1	2	3
	W.3b Organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally and logically.	0	1	2	3
	W6.3e Provide a logical conclusion	0	1	2	3
Style	W6.3d1. Use precise words and phrases (Avoid the Just Say No words.)	0	1	2	3
	W6.3c and W6.3a Vary sentence patterns and use a variety of transition words, phrases and clauses (syntax)	0	1	2	3
	W6.3d2and3 Use descriptive details and sensory language	0	1	2	3
	W6.3b Use dialogue skillfully with a variety of dialogue tags	0	1	2	3
Grammar	L6.1 Use correct grammar (correct subject-verb agreement, correct use of pronouns)	0	1	2	3
	L6.2 Correct capitalization, punctuation, and spelling	0	1	2	3
Format	Use correct MLA format of the paper.	0	1	2	3
Writing Process	Graphic organizer is filled in. Draft is included. Peer editing notes on your writing partner's narrative follow the Glatthorn prompts for peer review. Evidence of revision in final draft.	4	5	6	7